

Re. BellSouth's petition to have the FCC stop regulating broadband service. I think this would be a mistake. Having smaller, independent providers keeps the industry competitive in both consumer services and pricing.